SPILLS

ZERO discharge to public watercourse

Wastewater treated in the winery's own treatment plant at the Rueda winery and discharged into the vineyard

BIODIVERSITY PROTECTION

BIOLOGICAL CONTROL

Restrictions on the use of synthetic herbicides and fungicides. Elimination of insecticides and acaricides, controlling pests through sexual confusion and the use of natural enemies.

DIVERSITY

Planting of tree species around the perimeter of the vineyard to provide shelter and attract birds of prey to control overpopulations of rabbits and rodents.

SOIL HEALTH

Use of organic fertiliser, applied in the form of manure from nearby livestock farms.

We maintain the soil in the vineyard row with cover crops.

ADAPTATION TO CLIMATE CHANGE

The 'Viñedos de Altura' range is grown at 700 metres above sea level to delay ripening in response to climatic variability.
